

The simple typeface and fonts used shows that the message of the album is also simple, no complicated meaning.

The bold title of the featured song shows the significance of the message of the song, that the actors and friends of Paul Walker miss him and may one day see him again

The dark background with the light ahead of the main star shows that they are putting darker times behind them and are heading towards a brighter future and to happier memories.

Name of the main star and the guest star featured on the front to draw in audiences of both stars.

The car from the Fast and Furious series, and iconic symbol that represents Paul Walker. The car is in the centre of the image focusing the audience's attention of the digi-pack towards it and Paul Walker.

Star of the digi-pack on the front showing his significance, however he is off centre. This is to allow room for the title of the album song, which is a tribute to the star Paul Walker.
