Waiting for something or someone → Larry call a load of smoke in I wanna lose a couple days

Time is taking forever to pass → We've probably never struggled coping but I never want to

Trying to resist talking to a girl/forget about her → Promise again that I would call her
Forget the time because I'm 7 hours behind
It's probably good I didn't call though but I always want to Something bad may have happened between them, thinking positive →

He did something wrong → I'd beg you but you know I'm never home
I'd love you but I need another year alone
I've tried to ignore it every time you phone
But I never come close

Trying to stay away, as if something has happened and he needs time to think things through →

He just blows things off, doesn't pay attention to her feelings → I don't think through things, I never get time cause I don't think things through

Disappear like a magician, never come back, wants to hide from reality → Larry call a load of smoke in I wanna disappear for days complicated → We've probably never struggled sleeping but I never want to Trust issues → Promise again that I would call her

Forget the time because I'm 7 hours behind
It's probably good I didn't call though but I always want to

Repetition, continuously thinking about her.

Missing someone feeling lost because he is a long time away from the woman

I'd beg you but you know I'm never home
I'd love you but I need another year alone
I've tried to ignore it every time you phone
But I never come close

Repetition here again of words, to exaggerate his feelings.

I don't think through things, I never get time cause I don't think things through

Really missing girl, trying to stay away is hard

[x2]

Sung twice to make an impression on listener

I'd beg you but you know I'm never home
I'd love you but I need another second to myself
I've tried to ignore it every time you phone
But I never come close

Hasn't got time for her

Needs time to think about things

I'd beg you but you know I'm never home
I'd love you but I need another year alone
I've tried to ignore it every time you phone
But I never come close

Repetition once again to show the importance

Long distance away from each other
