EDITOR'S NOTE

It is so thrilling to take my place as the newest editor in this inspirational magazine. I have been reading Prodigy ever since I was young, and has it motivated me? Yes! Has it excited me? Absolutely! Prodigy has never failed to let me down and it is a complete privilage to be in this position. Music is what we live and breathe. I trust you adore Indie because I will be giving you an action-packed hit of it in all its glory, every month.

me where I would be now, this would be nothing but a dream"*
