

Scroll to see
DPS

"It's time to get groovy" - LUSH

K.C & LUSH'S reflection on 'TOO MUCH GROOVE'?

Right in time for the release of the album 'Too Much Groove', we've managed to get an exclusive Q&A with the stars featured in it, K.C & Lush. In this we've asked them about their new album release, how they met up and both of their futures within the industry. You don't want to miss this news whilst it's hot!

Two of the biggest Jazz stars that have come onto the scene recently are K.C & Lush. After working as a small-time artist for 3 years, K.C hit the big time with his hit single, 'Mellow'. Meanwhile, Lush made a splash on his debut, earning himself over 10,000 views on his first single. Both have now been near the top for over 6 months, so when Lush teased a collaboration on his twitter in August, many were optimistic for what was to come.

HOW DID YOU TWO MEET?

LUSH: So I had done a gig in London the night before so I had some free time to walk around. I found a small show nearby so I decided to watch it. Much of that night I've forgotten, however I distinctly remember hearing K.C start to perform. For a small show, his talent was too great, so I decided to go and meet him after the performance and that's where we got to know each other.

WHAT INSPIRED YOU TO WORK TOGETHER?

K.C: I'd say it was that performance I had that night. I had also heard Lush the night prior as I was a big fan, so I was extremely happy to talk to him. We went our separate ways, however we did stay in contact and then, after hearing fan demand, we caved in and decided it was time.

DO YOU PLAN ON DOING A TOUR TOGETHER?

K.C: Currently I have no plans to do a tour within the next few months so I won't be touring with Lush.

LUSH: For my tour in 2 months, I will be playing some of the songs featured in the album, however K.C won't be making any appearances there.

DO YOU PLAN ON MAKING ANY OTHER COLLABORATIONS IN THE NEAR FUTURE?

LUSH: Currently we have no plans to collab again, however neither of us are really against doing it again.

K.C: Although me & Lush have no plans, I have had something in the works for a while with someone else, however we aren't ready to release the full details just yet.