"We want to revolutionise the musical theatre world"

Introducing the stars of the hit musical SPLIT; Remy Wright, Sezza, and Kelliam talk exclusively to Vocal in a break between rehearsals. In a return to Broadway, SPLIT their hit musical is on the cards.

These three stars are the brains behind the musical, and whilst they not only starred in the performance, they composed all of the music by themselves too – all within the span of a YEAR.

Whilst Kelliam was only a composer in the original adaptation of the show, the NEW revamped version brings him centre stage between Remy's and Sezza's characters, bringing exciting new storylines to the theatre. Kelliam making his debut on the stage has stirred up some controversy on social media, with some doubting his ability to keep the original essence of SPLIT going.

Q – WHY DID YOU DECIDE TO REVAMP THE MUSICAL?

A- Well we thought it was the perfect time to bring it back. We all happened to finish our last musicals around the same time, so we thought it was best to bring SPLIT back with a bang and completely revamp the soundtrack and do what we truly love. However, we were determined to keep some of the original favourites that we know our audiences love.

Q- HOW DID YOU COME UP WITH YOUR IDEAS FOR YOUR NEW SONGS?

A- We just gathered around at Sezza's house which is where we created the original soundtrack, so we could maintain that authenticity of the original rendition. It was common for us all to just jam out in the key's and rhythms that we know work for SPLIT, until we find something that worked, and we build upon that until we get to a point where we can add our lyrics and incorporate it into the story.

Q- HOW ARE YOU PLANNING ON SHOWCASING YOUR WORK?

A- We hope that we can take our musical on tour one day. We want to be able to show the whole world our works, and we want to go on to reach new levels of success. We will be debuting our new rendition in a tour around Britain, encompassing England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, ROI, IOM, and the Channel Islands. Once we see a desire for the rest of the world to see us, we will expand our cast, budget, and experience, to make sure everyone who wants to see us, can.

A- We want to revolutionise the whole of the musical theatre world, we want to make substantial changes to people's opinions, taste, and we want to broaden the world's horizons. Split people's opinions on musical theatre, and change people's mindset!

Q- IS THERE ANYONE WE MAY KNOW WORKING BEHIND THE SCENES TO MAKE THIS HAPPEN?

A- We have the renowned set designer Polly Po working with us to make SPLIT happen, she has made our visions come true and we can't wait to show it with you!

A- Oh! We can't forget about the wonderful Marshall doing our costume designs, he also worked on the original rendition of SPLIT and did a fantastic job, and we hope to work with him again in the future.

Vocal will be following the tour closely, and in next month's edition, we will be reviewing SPLIT'S opening night before the beginning of their tour! Tune in to next months edition for a chance to win TWO tickets to their EXCLUSIVE closing show.
