Angel Musician Spirals Into Her Destiny

'Sweet Like Candy'

Did this song really make her the hottest and newest sensation
of the decade?

Laura Le Cras

Laura Le Cras! The greatest pop singer of our time. She has shared her voice all over the world and with every performance being a high energy thrill and a spectacular experience, we at Sweetness are thrilled to be able to meet bring you her 'bio' so that you can feel even closer to this mega-star, super-star.

Laura grew up in LA, America and has been singing since she was a toddler in a pushchair. Even her primary school teachers, said she was a natural and she won every talent show she ever entered. Audiences loved her from the very beginning and it was clear she had some incredible natural talents

'I was the first to hear her angelic voice and knew from then on she was going to be a star'

Laura first began her adult career in a female group band named 'Beatz', alongside with Ella Eyre and Camilla Cabello who are now also outstanding solo artists. During this time, 'Beatz' was topping off the worldwide charts making them the most popular and viewed female group. However, their fans were always aware that Laura was the most outstanding of the group and held it together with her voice throughout their meteoric rise to fame.

Laura is set to go on tour in 2020 with newly produced and harmonic music. This announcement was made in December 2019 just after she was added to the list of A-list performers at the annual Grammy awards. Prior to this she tweeted, 'So excited to be seeing all you guys again, can't wait to share my new songs with all of you. Lets rock this year!'

Sweetness can reveal here exclusively that, Laura Le Cras' Tour Date will begin on the 7th of February in London at the O2 stadium and we will be giving away 2 VIP tickets for the opening concert in next month's edition of Sweetness. Be sure to bag your copy early!

'Its an essential role to being a famous singer'

In February 2015 Laura decided to go solo! She had the number 1, number 2 and number 3 songs in the UK and America with 'Break Free', 'Into You' and 'Side To Side'. After this she was the 2nd most followed person on Twitter and Instagram! This obviously increased her fame which allowed her to go on
