

WHEN LIFE GIVES YOU

LEMONS MAKE

LYRICAL LEMONADE

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW

Leon Simon was born in Guernsey (Channel Islands) and he had limited opportunities to work with when trying to become more established as a rapper. After finishing his A-levels his family all agreed that his dreams were highly unlikely, and that he should get a well paid job on island. He disagreed with this, and with no one supporting his ideas, he moved to the USA in hopes of picking up a label. It took Leon six whole months to pick up a label, a small one called IMAGE, this is

He says "During the move to the USA, my parents were totally against the idea of me trying to continue with music. The lack of support was a real struggle, because the 6 month battle of picking up a label was the loneliest period of my life" Said Leon with a very quaky voice. "I have decided to share this story, to put in perspective that anything is possible, and to inspire the younger generations who love rap or anything of that matter, to try before you conclude yourself." in the past.

A tear drops from his eye as he remembers the troubles he had faced.

More of this is featured on our very own website,

www.pionermagazine.com

PAGE 72

LEON

10iK3