

J-Salmo's Steps to Success

Who would be your ideal person to collaborate with?

"My idol to collab with would probably be Polo G, since he's an emerging music artist, and his music is of high quality, and I like the way he writes about his personal life and doesn't chat bs."

Why did you want to become a rapper?

"I do it because I want to keep the world entertained, and mixing it with music, which is something I enjoy, was the ideal combination." It wasn't simple; it required years of work, but I'm here to illustrate that anyone can achieve the same results if they put in the time and effort."

How would you describe the music you create?

"I consider myself to be honest and realistic, which is why I enjoy Polo G. I'm different from other rappers in that I speak exactly what I f*ing do. Many of them make it up because they think it's cool."

How much have you grown as an artist?

"I've obviously matured; I used to rap in the studio for pleasure, but now it's my full-time profession."

I take it much more seriously because if my songs flop, it would demotivate me and have an impact on my entire life."

What is the one message you would give to your fans?

"As I previously stated, if I can accomplish it, you most certainly can." I had to grow up in a harsh and dangerous environment, and I didn't have much money. All you have to do is put forth the time and effort, and you will succeed. That's a guarantee."
