

What's Happening?	Overall Tone / Mood of the Scene	Director Intentions
--------------------------	---	----------------------------

Term	Key examples from your text	What meaning is implied, suggested or connoted about the nature of the place / character / event?	Significance to the whole film or context?
Costume <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hats & Shoes Colour(s) Condition / Uniform(ity) Status / Power 	Nurses hat & slides. Hospital gown White Blood stained Dent is bound, Joker has all the power	The role of a nurse is juxtapositioned with the Joker's destructive role Dent being bound is physical representation of how powerless he feels, the Joker being unbound shows his confidence and how he 'holds all the cards'
Action <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Proxemics Actions & Reactions Behaviour / Mannerisms 	Wig reveal, harvey dent goes wild (pushes against bindings) Joker tries to get Dent to kill him (Dent uses coin)	Shows that Dent is unaware/uncaring of his surroundings, doesn't notice Joker until he sits right next to him and takes off his wig
Make-up & Hair <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Style Prosthetics Injuries / Condition Status / Power 	Ginger wig, 1940s style. Cgi based specialFX Jokers classic face,	Wig is to disguise himself, does not disguise his face to try and get caught, he does not fear getting caught. He is growing in confidence, increasingly more unpredictable, and plays games. Burn victim style fx, shows the accident in gory detail.
Props <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Objects used by characters Furniture Quality Colours 	Gun, coin, detonator, hand sanitiser dispenser Hospital bed	"Chance is the purest form of chaos." Coin goes from being two-heads to a regular 50/50 coin, showing that Dent is less assured and less sure of the outcomes of his actions
Setting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Location Condition Dressing 	Hospital : clinical, modern, abandoned	Hospitals are usually places of safety and rehabilitation, the Joker is invading this space and interrupting Dent's rehabilitation	