TWO STARS RUMORED TO BE DATING TAKE THE CHALLENGE OF THE JUNGLE, BOTH APPEARING ON: 'I'M A CELEBRITY GET ME OUT OF HERE'

Pop star sensation Joshua Streeting and Elise Le Lacheur have announced their new upcoming appearance on 'I'm a Celebrity Get Me Out of Here'. This isn't surprising as the stars have been seen on many occasions together. We are all wondering where the 'relationship' will go next. Josh Streeting and Elise Le Lacheur are both award winning pop stars. Both stars have appeared on many talk shows but neither have done anything as challenging or thrilling as 'I'm a Celebrity'. The suspected couple have been seen together in local shops, airports and other artists' concerts. Their fans are dying for the news of whether this relationship will go anywhere or if the couple will carry on flirting throughout the camp as they both go into the jungle.

'THIS WILL BE A CHALLENGE BUT WE WILL PUSH THROUGH TOGETHER'

When interviewed by our team here at Snap Pop, Josh explained, 'I've performed in front of thousands but the thought of everyone in England watching makes me uncomfortable. However it will be nice to push my boundaries and exceed my comfort levels.' When we asked the star what he thought about going in with one of the stars he is rumored to be having a scandal. Josh failed to respond and took no further questions. Elise didn't help the situation as she didn't respond to the question either, making us think is something really happening? Their diehard fans can't wait for the news or to see the couple compete for stars. Some are saying they will reach for the stars in challenges and find love.

The team here at Snap Pop spoke to some of the couples' fans to see what they think of this, and what they think will happen after 'I'm a Celebrity Get Me Out of Here'. The responses were as expected: Most are speculating that after the show many are saying they predict Elise to win 'I'm a Celebrity' and Josh soon to become the face of ITV appearing in adverts and going on multiple talk shows for ITV. They would've announced they are in a relationship and will be very excited to be leaving the jungle with not just Elise winning but both of them leaving with love in their hearts.

Will Elise experience another No1 in the charts and become Queen of the Jungle or will she leave her music life behind to start a new life with her fellow campmate and exclusive boyfriend Josh Streeting? Is this the end of the stars career's or will they both carry on pursuing their dreams together. Stick with us here at Snap Pop to find out!
