

LIFE AFTER GREATNESS

This article is all about the best tips for life, given by somebody who has experienced it all.

1 Trust Nobody - "Don't trust nobody, you never know when someone could strike at you... and it could be anybody from friends, family and people you don't even know. People will do anything for a bit of money and fame. So tip number one, trust nobody"

2 Don't let nobody tell you that you can't do it - "You can always achieve your goals you just need to put in the work and hours but without the effort you won't always be able to have what you would like. If you have people in your life who support you keep them in it they're real ones."

3 Treat everybody as equals "Treat everybody you meet with the same amount of respect you would have for someone like a president or a celebrity. Being nice can get you far in this world. It costs nothing to be a good person, treating people with respect will mean you get it back if you're rude don't expect to be treated nicely." don't expect to be treated nicely."

4 Wealth isn't everything - "Money in this world is not everything. Don't harm people just to make a little bit of extra money, it's not worth it the relationships and experiences are worth more than the money. Your happiness will not come from money."

5 Don't do something you aren't passionate about - "If you put all of your time and effort into something you don't even enjoy, when you succeed it will feel worthless and like it was a waste of time. Work towards something you are passionate about because when you succeed you will feel accomplished."

6 Don't overwork - "Make sure you always have work done for when it needs to be done, but don't try and do all your work at once or put in tonnes of time in a short amount of time, you will stress yourself and it will be draining to yourself."

7 Always set lots of goals and tasks - "Everytime you finish a task or goal you will feel more accomplished and much better about yourself. So if you set yourself 10-20 achievable task per day you will feel much better but also set yourself goals in the long term, giving yourself something to work towards."

8 Be different - "Be out there, don't be like the crowd. The normal and different is what separates the unsuccessful from the successful, if you are just a sheep and follow everyone else you won't achieve your dreams. You have to be out there and different."

9 Surround yourself with good people - "Being around negative people all the time will have bad effects on you and your work, but being around positive people will have good effects on you. They're a good influence and can be supportive of you and your decisions."

"I want people to break the cycle."
